

From Roy at St Nicolas'
Rectory Cranleigh

30th May 2020

Dear Friends,

Here are your resources for this week, along with a PDF version of the June Parish Magazine.

Quite a bit of new and special stuff in the resources this week

- New and Updated Notices (Traidcraft and Meals from Rowleys)
- Meditation on The Lord's Prayer from our parishioner, Paul Jenkins
- Pentecost Message from Archdeacon Paul
- Pentecost poem by brilliant poet Malcolm Guite

The Sunday Worship this week is recorded in Church, and I apologise in advance that we had a few issues with sunlight! We have learnt the lesson that in future we shouldn't try to record in Church early on a sunny morning! For ease of access, here is the URL Link for watching the Sunday Communion Service – you should be able to just click on it:

Next week's worship will be led and prepared by Ian and Susie Maslin, as we continue to join our friends from Dunsfold and Hascombe.

With all good wishes,
God Bless,
Roy
