COLLECTS:

God of holiness, your glory is proclaimed in every age: as we rejoice in the faith of your saints, inspire us to follow their example with boldness and joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

(or)

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: grant us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those inexpressible joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

FIRST READING: Isaiah 25:6-9

On this mountain the Lord of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-matured wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-matured wines strained clear. And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; he will swallow up death for ever. Then the Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the Lord has spoken. It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the Lord for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

GOSPEL READING: John 11.32-44.

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, 'Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.' When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, 'Where have you laid him?' They said to him, 'Lord, come and see.' Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, 'See how he loved him!' But some of them said, 'Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?'

Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, 'Take away the stone.' Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, 'Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead for four days.' Jesus said to her, 'Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?' So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upwards and said, 'Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.' When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, 'Lazarus, come out!' The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, 'Unbind him, and let him go.'

POST COMMUNION PRAYER:

God, the source of all holiness and giver of all good things: may we who have shared at this table as strangers and pilgrims here on earth be welcomed with all your saints to the heavenly feast on the day of your kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

WEEKLY NOTICES:

LET US KNOW WHAT YOU THINK Our present programme of services, and provision for young people (SEA Church) running since the beginning of September was always intended to be experimental, as a progression towards a 'new normal'. We are aware that the present arrangements are not perfect, and at its November meeting, the PCC will be looking at what changes are needed for January. We would like to know your views – please email or write to Nicola at The Parish Office (by Sunday 14th November) to help us in our planning. Nicola's contact details are on the back page of this document. We would particularly like to hear your views on any of the following, which we know are important:

- Providing a balanced programme of services which cater for a wide range of ages and a broad range of styles of worship
- Provision for our young people and families
- A return to providing evening worship
- Midweek Services
- Anything else you would like to tell us about

MANY THANKS to the mowing team for keeping the churchyard cut neatly throughout the summer. We have deliberately left the long stuff for environmental reasons but Cynthia and her small band have been tackling this lately.

If necessary we can finish this as well as gathering leaves at our annual Autumn tidy up which will be on Saturday 4th December in readiness for the Christmas Tree Festival the next weekend. Please come and help - bring strimmers, clippers, scythes! and rakes etc - we're hoping to exceed the record numbers who turned out last year! Refreshments provided as usual.
